"Hello"

Visit "Hello" on MotoLyrics.com

This is hello
You came crashing down
Like a fallen angel
Or maybe waves of sound
Into the ground
Cross your heart for real
And not your fingers
Just tell me how you feel
And we'll say

This is hello
From the top of the world
Down below
All the problems we had are tiny specks;
A string of pearls around your neck

This is hello
From the top of the world
Down below
Up here all of our cares are pouring down
Like raindrops falling to the ground

Why'd this have to end
Like this my friend
I know it's hard to understand
To even see the plan
But if you could fly away
And just escape
Would you come if I said you could
Leave with me today

It's just me
It's just you
And everything we've ever wanted to do
Your hand
In mine
Take heart
Everything will be alright
And I might just
Sing it out loud
Cause we're so far from nothing

And I've never been so proud
And we're up so high
Where our ground is the sky
And it's falling
