Wait for it dear,
We'll get there when you least expect it.
Just breathe, and open up your heart.

I'm always here, waiting with open arms to catch you.
I found that we have lost our way.

Soon we'll be home
Soon we'll be home

I'm with you believe it, when ever you may need it.
Just thought you'd like to know, take my hand, and let go.

My lips are sealed, sealed with your kiss and I am speechless.
Not that I have anything to say.
Keep your eyes pealed, we'll get so very far away from here,
And find a place to call our home.

Soon we'll be home
Soon we'll be home

Just thought you'd like to know, take my hand, and let
go.

Just thought you'd like to know, take my hand, and let
go.

Just thought you'd like to know, take my hand, and let
go.

Just thought you'd like to know, take my hand, and let go.
