Johnny 's in the backroom, looking for some matches,
Wanna smoke a cigarette, play a little bocce.
Sun is out shinning, out on the boulevard.
Skates out, tides up.
Lets go to the liquor store.
40 ounce, tequila, whiskey, tanqueray.
Smoke a little buddha then,
Everything is okay,
Ride onto the beach now,
Listen to some good sounds,
Bass up, beers up, everybody get down.

We used to wake up and go down, for a walk.
We used to break up and take back, what you want.

So we used to wake up and go down, for a walk.
So we used to break up and take back, what you want.

And I'll sing, la la la...
