So way down there in Mexico,
I was, starting to get lost.
I'd been drinking for a week,
Before I thought that I should stop.
Well I don't know if I know you,
What's your name again?

If you give me one more minute,
I will buy you ten.

So I'm riding with this baby,
And I'm starting to get off.
Senorita's got me pushing,
And I just don't want to stop.
Well I don't know if I know you,
What's your name again?

See tequila makes me horny,
And the love is for kids.

And oh my god I've gone a dream
And I'm laying in some piss.
And this gusto got to pusho,
And you know what happened next.
Well I shot a cop and robbed a bank,
Heading for Los Angeles.

But I know I'm coming back there,
To see my baby again.

Just scram!
Just scram! Oh oh, oh yeah.
