I don't know why you always seem to be right so turn off the light and kiss me goodnight

I know you'll never regret having fun loving someone burned in the sun

now I can lead and I can follow and I can...save my everything for tomorrow

I constantly
say your name say your name you said to me
you missed your aim so what's your claim now and I constantly say I just need you around

I don't now why you always seem to be shy then you turn off the light

I know you'll have no regrets in your life
'cause you're not a liar you light my fire

now I can lead but I will follow
and I can...save my everything for tomorrow

...yeahh....

I constantly
