motion holds me captive and it keeps me from the truth No I don't know how I got here but I know I'm missing you

And I know the day is coming when I'll be back inside your arms but as much as I believe it that day seems so far

so I kiss the sky tonight and pretend I'm by your side and in the dark I'll feel the light I'll be loved, I'll be loved, I'll be loved, I kiss the sky

Everytime the wind blows I hear it call your name and even in the darkness I can see your face.
Every second brings my freedom much closer into view.
So the ocean will not hold me and I'll be one with you.

So I kiss the sky tonight
and pretend I'm by your side
and in the dark I'll feel the light I'll be loved, I'll be loved, I'll be loved

I kiss the sky
