"So Done"

I'm so done with waiting
Waiting on you
I'm so done with waiting
But what else can I even do?
I'm just ready to leave
After all you've put me through

I'm so done with crying
Crying over you
I'm so done with crying
Over things you always do
Said I'm ready to up and leave
After all you're making me do

And you'll find out
If you leave now

This is how it should be
I'm so done with you

I can't keep this up
You just let me down
I can't be myself
With you hanging around
I'm so done with you
And there's nothing else to say

If you want love you should give up
Cause I'm not what you need
And you'll find out if you leave now
This is how it should be
I'm so done with you
