Sometimes you find something
You know that you'll never let go
It isn't always the right thing
But somehow it makes you whole

There are so many things left unsaid
Just try to keep your eyes straight ahead
You won't know what's down the road
But it doesn't mean you should stay home

You've gotta live
You've gotta live right now
You've gotta realize that some things are just never found
You've gotta live
You've gotta live today
You've gotta keep it all together when things get in your way
You've gotta live

Sometimes you find nothing

But you feel like you've found it all
It isn't always a good thing
But you'll get back up if you fall

There are so many things on your mind
Just make sure you're not wasting time
You won't know what's down the road
but it doesn't mean you should stay home

oh no, no
You've gotta live
You've gotta live right now
You've gotta realize that some things
are just never found
You've gotta live
You've gotta live today
You've gotta keep it all together when
things get in your way
You've gotta live
