Of my free will
I will follow you wherever you go
In search of souls
At any cost to myself
And out of pure love of you.

I will follow you to the desert
I will follow you to the sea
I will follow you, dear Jesus, to your death on Calvary
Take me to the places your love is still unknown
Take me with you, Jesus - that is where I want to go.

I'll search in every valley
I'll search through streets and slums
I'll search for every living soul until your kingdom comes
Take me to the places your love is still unknown
Take me with you, Jesus - that is where I want to go.
