Yeah!
Every time I feel so lonely
You're the one I can't ignore
But all you give is this confusion
Trying hard to tie the score
And every time you're feeling lonely
I'm the one that you restore
Every time you need affection
You think that I'll be at your door
Now I'd leave you waiting
You'll be craving for more
Will you run will you hide
From the love that you adore
Do you run do you hide
From the love this love that you adore
Will you find me, save me, free me in this love we both belong
You'll be waiting baby I'll be asking for more from you
