"Will I Ever"

This ain't a love song and it's not a fairytale
I wouldn't breath in without beeing sure to exhale

When I feel a ray of sunshine
Or the rain is coming down on me
When my feet hardly touch the ground
I ask myself how will it be

Will I ever find somebody to love me
Will I ever find somebody to care
Will I ever find a reason to live for
If I wouldn't be sure it is there

Will I ever find somebody to hold me
Will I ever get a feeling to share
Will I ever find a reason to live for
If I wouldn't be sure it is there

This ain't a painting and it's not an empty frame
This is your highway and your free to choose your own lane

When I feel a ray of sunshine
Or the rain is coming down on me
When my feet hardly touch the ground
I ask myself how will it be
