The night is young,
The stars are bright.
There's nothing like what I see tonight.

The moon is shining,
My heart is new,
That's the feeling I have with you.

My feet are moving,
We are playing a game.
I am winning and I feel no shame.

The music's a lullaby,
My heart sings praise.
I want to dance for all of my days.

My feet are worn.
The music dims.
We're alone, you flash a grin.

My head's in the clouds,
I am in bliss,
Gently you touch me, we unite with a kiss.

Our tender lips touch,
The mood is right.
I truly have had a glorious night.
