Album: The Happy Days

Everyday I see you
It pains me to miss you this way, hey
Whenever you smile
My heart wants to reach out
But I know we will never be.

But I still love you
Why do I love you?
There's so many others
But I just want you
I just want you.

Everything you do
Makes me want to shout; it's beautiful
With every word you say
I'm getting stronger and weaker you know
But I know we will never be

But I still love you
Why do I love you?
There's so many others
But I just want you
I just want you.

And every single step you take,
Every little move you make
Makes me wish I could climb mountains with you

But I know we will never be

But I still love you
Why do I love you?
There's so many others
But I just want you
I just want you.

But I still love you
Why do I love you?
There's so many others

But I just want you
I just want you.
