There was a time you made me smile
Made me feel so good inside
I never thought you were doing wrong
In my heart you were the only one

But as time passed us by
You seemed to change right before my eyes
Red lipstick found on your clothes
Just another reason to let you know that

It's time to move on
I have to leave and there's no better way
It's time to move on
(Don't waste your sweet talk)

It's time to move on
I have to leave and there's no better way
It's time to move on
There is no reason I should stay with you
There is no reason, there is no reason

There was a time when it was one-on-one
And our love life was so much fun
Just a touch from your lovin' hand
Would turn me on and my heart would start to dance

(Just a little bit)
Of loving that we shared
(Just a little bit)
Of your heart and romance

(Just a little bit)
Will never be enough
'Cause I need a man
That can give me everlasting love

It's time to move on
I have to leave and there's no better way
It's time to move on
(Don't waste your sweet talk)
Don't waste your sweet talk

It's time to move on
I have to leave and there's no better way
It's time to move on
There is no reason I should stay with you

I know in time
A true man if I could find
Then I'll have a love
That's gonna last for the rest of my life
Time, time, time, time

(There is no reason)
'Cause I need a
(There is no reason)
'Cause I need a man

(There is no reason)
'Cause I need a
'Cause I need a man
That can give me everlasting love

It's time to move on
I have to leave and there's no better way
It's time to move on
(Don't waste your sweet talk)
Don't waste your sweet talk

It's time to move on
I have to leave and there's no better way
It's time to move on
There is no reason I should stay with you

(Just a little bit)
Of your love
(Just a little bit)
Of your heart

(Just a little bit)
Of romance
(Don't waste your sweet talk)
Don't waste your sweet talk
(Just a little bit)

(Just a little bit)
Don't waste your sweet talk
(Just a little bit)
(Just a little bit)
Don't waste your sweet talk

(Just a little bit)
(Just a little bit)

Don't waste your sweet talk
(Just a little bit)
(Just a little bit)
Don't waste your sweet talk
