Baby stop and think about it
Tell me where did we go wrong, how did it end like this?
Can we work it out I doubt it
We did all we could and baby I can't go on like this.
I never did you wrong your tripping.
Listening to your friends and all the bullshit they had to say.
It's like they loved you more then I did.
So baby roll with your crew and do what you want to do because

I never wanna kiss you again,
Never wanna walk through the park holding your hand.
No more talking all night, until the early morning.
And it's such a shame to say that we'll never be the same... again

Baby stop and think about it
You lied to me, lied to me.
Baby stop and think about it
You lied to me, lied to me.

The love we once shared girl no longer
It no longer remains and now it's heartache and pain
because
She never really knew she wondered.
Was she being untrue or was I being a fool because I'm gone and I'm never coming home
So baby don't call 'cause I won't answer the phone.
Stay out of my life baby just leave me alone.
And it's such a shame, to say, that we'll never be the same.

I never wanna kiss you again
Never wanna walk through the park holding your hand.
No more talking all night until the early morning
And it's such a shame to say to that well never be the same... again

Baby stop and think about it
You lied to me, lied to me.

Baby stop and think about it.
You lied to me lied to me.

Girl you told me you'd be there for me, promised that
you'd never leave
You lied to me, you lied to me, lied to me
Girl you told me you'd br there for me, promised that
you'd never leave
You lied to me, you lied to me, lied to me
Girl you told me you'd be there for me, promised that
you'd never leave
You lied to me, you lied to me, lied to me.

And now I'm closing the door,
With my heart on the floor,
I don't love you no more,
That's why, I

I never wanna kiss you again
Never wanna walk through the park holding your hand
No more talking all night until the early morning
And it's such a shame to say that we'll never be the same.

Baby stop and think about it
You lied to me, lied to me
Baby stop and think about it
You lied to me, lied to me.
