Things have changed, I don't know this place.
Everything I've known is gone.
Falling through apathetic thoughts.
Can I pick myself back up?

Or is it too late for me now?
Or is it too late for me now?

Climb back up from my mistakes,
All this regret is killing me.
Finding peace of mind.
I can't win but I must try to find myself through all this mess
I've made for myself.

Or is it too late for me now?
Or is it too late for me now?
Do I have the strength or will to go through this again?
Please just help me get through this,
I can't just sit and wait.
Holding on to hopeless dreams I tried to make so real.
Do I have the strength or will to go through this again?

Paranoid as hell
I'll wait inside my little lie.
Hope is not enough to bring my life back up.
If all I do is wait,
I'll go nowhere.
That's life...Get used to it.
