Intro]

Ooh ohhh

Ooh ohhhh-eh-oh

Ohh yeah, yeah

[Verse 1]

I thought I had to let you know

The way that you look so beautiful

And I couldnt let this pass

You running through my mind like a mental dash

The way that you smile

The way that you handle yourself, is why you got me

So crazy in love

All I could ask for is help from above

I wanted to know some things

Like how you get down, and what's your name

Maybe we can spend some time (yeah)

I can show you what's on my mind

Wanna make you feel secure and I could do this for you (do this for you)

Can't help but love this feeling that you giving to me

Feeling like there's more to life than living to breathe

You opened my eyes wide to see what I couldnt see

And now this ride looks like what it was driven to be

[Chorus]

I can see it from the look in your eye

The last thing I wanna see you do is cry

You're the only one I need in my life

Allow me to welcome you to my world

My world, now that you're in my world

You're in my world, my world, in my world

[Bridge]

Shining like the stars around

Already know I gotta hold you down

So would you let me girl?

To be your only guy, and you will never be lonely right?

Welcome to my world

[Verse 2]

You are different than all the other girls that I came across
Yeah, you paid the cost
And I would take time, just to be your main guy
You make it worthwhile
Girl you make my world smile
World smile, word smile
Cause you mean the world to me

[Chorus]

[Verse 3]

Me and you, you and me
We are a perfect fantasy
I thought I'd never meet the one to Show me how to love and be true
So, this love burns under my skin
Cause now we hotter than we ever been
I could tell that you do care
Just know that I'll be there
For you, anytime you want
Pretty lady you could have it all
Ooh ohh, ooh ohhh ohh
You could have it all
I will give it all to you

[Chorus]

[Outro]

Now that you're in (ooh ohh)
Now that you're in my (ey)
Now that you're in my world
In my world
