You, make me, better
I'd givven all I got to get to you
Can you, taken

I am all on you
To be coming through
I am all on you
And that's why

I spending my emotions on you

Baby, feel me
Cause all I wanna do is do your right
And touch you, feel you

I am all on you
To be coming through
I am all on you
And that's why

I am all on you, baby

I am all on you
To be coming through
I am all on you
And that's why,
I spending my emotions on you
