You try to tear
your eyes from love it shines so bright it keeps you up all night it has a sound, a smell a taste, a touch
no matter what you do you know you just can't stop thinking of

sugar and vodka moons
silk stockings and a red balloon big bang theory is coming soon and you know that you been waiting for this moment all your life...

you run your hands across her back her skin, her hair hungry like a cat you want to play around and keep her up all night you gonna kiss her real soft and then you gonna bite

for this moment all your life...

how did you run into luck just when you were giving up you been dreaming of this love all your life...

you cross the line
you need her now you hear her voice your heart begins to pound and then your loneliness surrenders to her smile you gonna take her in your arms you want a walk her down the aisle

and you know that you been... waiting for this moment all your life...
