I saw the dark cloud brewing
I saw the rivers fry
I saw the water rising
I saw the angry sky
I saw the seeds of sorrow written in golden blood I saw the gods of money choking on dirty air I saw tomorrows children thinking that no one cared but we're coming home now don't stand in our way
my friend is a musician he went down to Brazil he said that it was beautiful but at night you could get killed by packs of children living out on their own what kind of world is this what kind of crazy dream to run from the eyes of a ten year old child hungry and mean
don't stand in our way... we're gonna walk that walk we're gonna talk that talk we're gonna rock the rock but it won't be easy

so we'll come together and we'll come on strong people destroyed by poverty forest destroyed by flames oceans destroyed
by chemicals
it's running round my brain you turn on the TV set they tell you whats safe to eat who are the ones that profit what is the bottem line Christ there's a hole in the ozone

an my baby's crying
don't stand in our way...
I woke up in the morning felt like my life was thru I had nothing to live for but I was just a fool cause one day
I saw the beauty written in every face wake up there is a future look up its everywhere people come on and join us everybody will be there cause we're coming home now
join us
