I lost my job
My girl my dog
My TV's on the blink
They're turning off my phone
There's dishes in my sink
The mail arrives
The letter says
They don't like my tape
But even when the walls close in
Baby I escape

I fall in love
Every five minutes
Every five minutes
Someone starts to move me
I fall in love
Every five minutes
I just can't quite it
Must be something in the water

Threw me down the stairs
Right into the street
The ground split open
I fell thirty feet
Hanging off a ledge
Yeah things have gone too far
But even if I fall
I thank my lucky stars

CHORUS

Every face shines like the sun
Every face
Every heart looks for the one
Every heart
Had a true love
Held it in my hands
Slipped thru my fingers
And I'll never understand
I'll keep on searching for
A love I felt before
But baby I don't mind

Cause when I walk out the door

CHORUS

Every face shines like the sun
Every face
Every heart beats for the one
Every heart

Downsized
Locked out
Locked up
And Refused
Nothing from nothing
Leaves nothing but the blues
They say you got to win
But they don't let you choose
But baby that's alright
Cause even if I lose

I fall in love
Every five minutes
Every five minutes
Someone starts to move me
I fall in love
Every five minutes
I just can't quite it
