I saw my love I saw my love but it was a surprise for I had not revealed myself wearing a disguise and I knew the door was locked no open window here
I was busy giving up
I had disappeared from sight then you turned on the light baby how did you get in I knew my love I knew my love but I didn't know dancing with the obstacles drinking down the walls falling into every hole touching every skin I'm so glad you found me girl won't you tear me limb from limb blowing like the wind

how did you get in
I heard my love I heard my love singing in my ear the sweetest voice I ever heard bringing me to tears how did you find your way to me it was cold and dark I was the man made of stone how did you break into my heart you broke in my heart
my heart my heart
tell me how did you get in
