It was raining, like the tide
Kind of water, you got to ride
We was runnin' for high ground
Suddenly I heard a sound
Door swung open and I climbed
Into Noah's car

It was crowded, it was jammed
There were hit men with their lambs
There were stray dogs with their nuns
Holding on to silver guns
They robbed the fat cats
To pay for gas
In Noah's car

And we'll ride
Together we will ride
We'll ride through the storm
Together

Smiling junkies, sang the blues
To the broken hearted fools
Saw some monkeys, a lion too
Guess they broke out of the zoo
Like me and you, they work the door
In Noah's car

Sexy waitress, past her prime
Love's a dreamer, who loves the wine
Saw a young man run out of time
Saw a sad girl out of her mind
She kept on laughin'
Til we laughed with her
They turned the radio up

In Noah's car

And we'll ride, together we will ride
We'll ride through the storm together
And we'll ride, together we will ride
We'll ride through the storm
Forever

Weren't no sinners, weren't no saints
Weren't no angels with their snakes
Weren't no judges, weren't no jails
Only people passin' pails
Water was risin'
We sprung a leak
In Noah's car

Fixed that hole
The best we could
With lingerie and soggy wood
Faded pictures from our past
But only love could make it last
We held each other
And sang all night
In Noah's car

And we'll ride, together we will ride
We'll ride through the storm
Together
And we'll ride, together we will ride
We'll ride through the storm
Forever

It was rainin' like the tide
Kind of water, you got to ride
