"I Was Wrong"

Ow!

Little girl, you made a mistake
Don't start crying or your heart will break
Stand up for yourself
Say I was wrong
If you belive in the power of the soul
Stand up tough and let the punches roll
Stand up for yourself
And say I was wrong

(Chorus)

I was wrong, to ever let you go
I said a million stupid things
And I was wrong but now I know
That if I was right
We'd still be going strong
But wer'e not perfect, although we try
We make mistakes and that is why
I was wrong

Ohh oh

Nobodys perfect but everybody tries
Tries to be perfect in the others eyes
Stand up for your right
To say I was wrong
So people if you make a miostake
Try to remember for your heavens sake
Stand up for your right
To say I was wrong

(Chorus)

I was wrong, to ever let you go
I said a billion crazy things
Just that I was wrong but now I know
That if I was right
We'd still be going strong
But wer'e not perfect, although we try
We make mistakes and that is why

I was wrong

Stand up for you rights
Stand up for you rights
Stand up for you rights

Stand up for you rights
Stand up for you rights
Stand up for you rights
