My advice to you would be to cry Lorraine
Then, dry your eyes, and hold your head up high
Lorraine
Don't worry about the money
He can look after his own affairs
Don't worry for the future
Of your world, until your'e half-way there

Somewhere, in a year from now you'll know Lorraine
Things that seem unclear for now will grow again
Don't tell me that it's over for you
I promise it's true that it's just, begun
Rememer you've a girl to be
And a world to see
While your'e strong and young

My advice to you would be

To listen to nobody
Including me Lorraine, you see Lorraine
The price of life is shared
You lead the big parade

Oh, close your eyes and go to sleep
And pray Lorraine
A cable car will take you, on your way again
You never have to sleep around
Or say things you'll never believe are true
But even if you make mistakes
That I have made, I care for you

My advice to you would be
To listen to nobody
Including me Lorraine, you see Lorraine
The price of life is shared
