Ah the first summer of love was here when I was much too young

Ah the first summer of love was clearly just a summer long

And there was Jesus on the radio

Jesus on the train...

Jesus in the calico

Jesus in the rain

And there was love love love love

Anyone could see that there was love

Love all over me

Ah the second summer of love is here so tell your angry friends

To throw away their Gaultier and grow their hair again.

Acid on the radio

Acid on the rain...

Acid in the calico

Acid in the rain.

And there was love love love love

Anyone could see that there was love

Love all over me

There was love love love love love...

Anyone could see that there was love

Love all over me.

There was love all over the country

And there was love all over the world.

Acid on the radio, acid on the brain, acid everywhere you go,

Acid in the rain.

And there was love love love love, anyone could see that there was love

Love all over me.

The was love, love, love, love, love

Anyone could see that there was love

Love all over me.
