This is where my life began
And where it's gonna end
Lying under stone,
I'll be holdin' her hand
Everything I've learned
Is breathin' in this place
Cemented in my mind,
It's written on my face

All the pain
Still love remains
Beneath the dirt
My heart in hers

This is where I'm from
Look how far I've come
This is where I'll die
Under God's watchful eye

Look how long it's been
The storm is movin' in
Where my soul resides
Under God's watchful eye

Take me home to Boston
Take me home to Boston

There's so much left of me
So much lost and dead
I'll be waiting all alone
I'll be whispering what's said

Everything we've shared
Could never be defined
It's hidden in my sould
Left there to remind

You're my friend
So cold and sweet
Strong is your will
So hard your streets

This is where I'm from
Look how far I've come
This is where I'll die
Under God's watchful eye

Look how long it's been
The storm is movin' in
Where my soul resides
Under God's watchful eye

Take me home to Boston
Take me home to Boston

All the pain
Still love remains
Beneath the dirt
My hand in hers

This is where I'm from

Take me home to Boston

This is where I'm from

Where my soul resides

Take me home to Boston
Take me home to Boston

I'm coming home to Boston
