I'm not your hero
I'm caught inside my ways
I'm not your savior
Don't let time waste away

I'm just man
You're just a girl
But it's complicated

The letters I wrote
I burned and stained with red
I did this on my own
I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero

Through the cracks of our emotion
Feeling down, like the force of the ocean
I know you broke all my affection
I didn't give you, any protection

What did we have to lose
What did we have to give
Everything and nothing is left to forgive
I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero
I'm caught inside my ways
I'm not your savior
Don't let time waste away

I'm just man
You're just a girl
But it's complicated

The letters I wrote
I burned and stained with red
I did this on my own
I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero

How long will this pain remain
'Cause I inflicted within this shame
Here I am, yest a pretender
Searchin' for somewhere to surrender

What did we have to lose
What did we have to give
Everything and nothing, left to forgive
I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero
I'm caught inside my ways
I'm not your savior
Don't let time waste away

I'm just man
You're just a girl
But it's complicated

The letters I wrote
I burned and stained with red
I did this on my own
I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero
I'm caught inside my ways
I'm not your savior

I'm just man
You're just a girl
But it's complicated

The letters I wrote
I burned and stained with red
I did this on my own
I'm not your hero

I'm not your hero
