The first time that I met you
I thought I found the girl
Who would open up my eyes
And bring new meaning to my world
I loved being close together
I thought we'd never be apart
But my dreams just suddenly shattered
When you decided to break my heart
You told me it would never work out
You didn't think we had a chance
Because you knew I'd be away for a while
I didn't know there was another guy
That you were seeing behind my back
I didn't think that was your style
I can't believe you hurt me
You acted really low
I don't know why you did it
But I think I have a right to know
You told me that you loved me
You said you would be true
You said you couldn't live without me
I can't believe I trusted you
You told me many things about you
You didn't even tell your friends
Our relationship was perfect
I can't believe it had to end
After all we did together
After all that was said and done

I can't believe you'd throw it all away
I thought you'd be the girl
That I would love for the rest of my life
I thought that you would always stay
And now I'm wandering around bewildered
Like a man lost in a blizzard of snow
I still don't see why you left me
But I think I have a right to know
Sometimes when I'm at home
I listen to the radio
And I hear our song start playing
And it's playing nice and slow
I know that when I'm next to others

I pretend that I don't even care
But at night when I'm all alone
I wish that you were there
Everything we had was perfect
Everything we had was right
I can't believe that it turned out so wrong
I'm not the type to hide my feelings
So I thought that I would let them out
And that's the reason why I wrote this song
I have so many questions
I guess that's how it goes
And though I haven't gotten any answers
I think I have a right to know
