I want you back today
I want you back tomorrow
If you don't come back home with me
I swear I'll hunt you down
I swear I'll hunt you down
I'll look for you in Michael's
I'll search for you in Sadie's
You're the only one for me
I want you for my lady
Your body is so perfect
Your face as pure as snow
If you don't come back home with me
I swear I'll hunt you down
I swear I'll hunt you down
Can you see me getting closer?
Can you feel me on your back?
You're the only one for me
I swear I want you back

This month has not been happy
Like other months have been
If you don't come back home with me
I swear I'll hunt you down
I swear I'll hunt you down
My life's been getting dismal
From the Swedish to Nirvana
You're the only one for me
Let's get together 'cause I wanna
We didn't even break up
We went separate ways instead
If you don't come back home with me
I swear I'll hunt you down
I swear I'll hunt you down
And then I'll eat you for dinner...
Bitch!
