I have 7 days without you calling
I have 7 days that I don't see you

Now my head it's only turning
And my heart you got it burning
Many days I have been waiting
Hear your voice

Why is that you don't want to talk me
Maybe cos you don't want to see me

If you just will in to call me
Only a few words needs to fill me
I need to see you, once again

Call me, I need to hear your voice
Call me, so lonely lonely I feel
Call me, I miss you more and more
More and more, call me now

Why is that... once again.

Call me... call me now
