1st verse

We haven't spoken for days,
So we tryin' to explain myself,
For this mess i've made,
Distance may be small,
But my telephone won't reach that long,
Cause your never home,

The lives we leave,
The vowles we break,
The hearts we crush with descisions that we make,

Chorus

What do you need me to say,
Do you need me to say that I (just as I always have) love you [x2]

2nd verse

It's been weeks now since I've,
Heard your voice and now I'm sorry that I didn't say enough,

Everything that I said,
Made the situation worse-- but-- now-- it's for the best,

The lives we leave,
The vowels we break,
The hearts we crush with descisions that we make

Chorus

What do you need me to say,
Do you need me to say that I (just as i always have) love
you [x3]

Ending

Now your gone [x4]

Chorus

What do you need me to say,
Do you need me to say that I (just as i always have) love
you!!
