Rage against the light
Minutes to midnight

My destination

Burning inner fire
Draining but going on

Acceleration

Tired but moving strong
This time I'm coming for more...

Rage against the light
Day drawing nearer

Hibernation

Nature screaming higher
Draining but going on

Termination

Tired but going strong
Ahead
That's why you'll always be

Stranger
The way of life that you feel
In the middle of the nowhere

Stranger
It's the life that you got
By yourself but never lonely

Stranger...

Never a chance to stay
Go hunting for your pray

Starvation

Wind never blowing your way
With feeling you strive

Suffocation

Just barely to be alive
From death
You flee That's why you'll always be

Stranger
The way of life that you feel
In the middle of the nowhere

Stranger
It's the life that you got
By yourself but never lonely

Stranger...

Rage against the fright
Pain growing harder

Deceleration

Draining the power

Extermination

Your life will be soon over
No more
The pain
The war

That's why you'll always be

Stranger
The way of life that you feel

Stranger

Stranger...

Rage against the light
Death drawing nearer

Stupefaction

Suffocating fire

The story of being me
'Cause I'll forever be

Stranger
You were strange to the world
That treated you with pain

Stranger
Dignity that you held
Never got you any gain

Stranger
