The dawn rise over the ocean
Casting my eyes on a brand new sun
My spirit flies over this mountain
Carrying my soul to the new day

And i hear the thunder's song
And I live the dream
Like a fire burning down my soul
Into the centre of my heart
And I feel it start

Can you hear the thunder
Raging in my heart again
And it feels like silent thunder
Raging in my heart....through my soul

Dark skies dangerous and beautiful
Guiding me home like an old friend
Sometimes I'm lost at night
Between the devil and the deep blue sea again

And I could feel the angels by my my side
How could they understand
How good this feels inside

Can you hear the thunder
Raging in my heart agian
And it feels like silent thunder
Raging in my heart....through my soul
