the army nulled, lie in their blood the mind is near, the war is here
the dark army marches again the living are becomming the dead the toxic taste, the dead bodies. caught in an endless shame , no1 will remember their names the dark army marches again, (ripping off your fucking heads?)
now we've given our souls away our hands are bloody. nothing can saturate the murder and the hate now heal, now kill, must spill, fresh bodies fill the streets flesh blood runs down, spills down before your eyes and blood on the wall. nightmare with a gun at your head your chance to escape suicide
the war rages on
the dark army marches again

these are probably not correct but are close. anyways no1 else on the web decided to post it.
