Behold the angels that burn in the fire
A timeless cremation of hells burning wrath
Wrought with infernal timeless execution
Already dead yet still praying for death

Behold the prophecy
Revealing itself in the flame
Demons surround you devouring your soul
When hope is abandoned the process starts over again

Bound in chain
Impaled upside down in a desert of fire
No hope for redemption
No hope that death will vanquish my soul
As I lie in torment
In fire for millenniums
My fate is inflicted

My soul convulsing in death throes demonica

Repulsing in beauty the death scape of hell
Grandure domination with tremendous force
A victory of fire has conquered at will
The path of the darkness has taken it's course

(chorus)

No escape from his grasp
Hear the screams of the fallen
No repentance is heard
Deaf ears fall on your cries
No end dwells in existence
Suffer now and forever
Ahead only time
In a nightmare existence

(verse1/chours)
