[This was VERY hard to make out but i tried my best you can refine on lyrics given to get a closer example]

Bow to your knees as you bow to the ancient ones, Avarration cries in the halls of the dead as the ajax creature awakes
Forces that fall as the prophecies said and the earth will crumble
and the souls will shake in a name,

Eyes condem your sea, and an Inviscial love is prayed.

Now that the night has spoken, and the souls cast shadows to the stars
destin to deny when the ring is broken, never to trust
the lie in a day.

Lies the flag of sin.
and the invisical love is gained, The eclipse of the end is the warn of sargen.
the face of time has witherd and decayed.

Burried in the darkend fire, Glowing eyes of distant
fires
facing off the ever higher twisted tower of fire.

The eclipse of the end is the warn of sargen.
the face of time has witherd and decayed.

Burried in the darkend fire, Glowing eyes of distant
fires
facing off at the ever higher twisted tower of fire.
at the twisted tower of fire, Of fire!
