Restraining my urges to break your face,
Anger drowns me every so often.
I want to get revenge on all who've done me wrong.
I swear I'm gonna build you a handmade coffin.

Cause and effect bad karma is calling me.
I have to defy this tragedy.
The deeds you've done were turned around on me.
I need to get revenge, the dominos are crushing me.

Your heart is cold. I'm growing old.
I smell your hate. Vengeance unfolds.
I taste your sin. I won't give in.
You've ceiled your fate, as it unfolds.

I am at peace and harmony.
I am at peace and harmony.
