Young girl so sweet and once so innocent Your life so brutal, true emotions suppressed

You scream, but he won't hear a word till he's had his way Victim of the cruelest kind of love

Against his urges there's no defence
The one who gave you life stole your innocence
You want to be free at any cost but you're chained by the shame and everything seems to be lost

Bringer of Torture
Bringer of Torture

You're not afraid of dying
Nothing could be worse than this life You're terrified of the pain, the pain that returns with the night

With the night!

Bringer of Torture
Bringer of Torture
Bringer of Torture

Insanity and terror, hand and hand
'till childhood dreams comes to an end
The situation, so vile and insane, Will never be over, he's coming back again, again and again

Bringer of Torture
