"At The End Of The Sky"

Oh darling i found a way across the sky
Found a way that i could fly
To the origin of time

I rewound to a place i don't recall
When my mother gave me life
I don't remember that at all

As it's so far and the memory is gone
And my reverie is worn
I told you of my dreams
On a dark loveless night
You told me my name
I forgot it again
At the end of the sky

I go and i sit upon a rainbow
Shining like a spiders web
Flashing blue and flashing red
Oh darling it's flashing blue and flashing red

It will open up your eyes
That's the end of the sky

I'm sliding down,i'm going down from so far away
I'm sliding down,i'm going down
The rainbow is bright
At the end of the sky

My prayers,all my prayers are waiting there
I am caught upon a thread
Dying in a spiders web
And my love,all my love is shining there
I just want to know you care
Was it something that i said ?
I'm dying in a spiders web.
