[music: sanga | lyric: burvall]

Lay your head down on my bed of petals Prepare to let me take you away to serve me always Mortal soul for you I will be For you I will raise the ground and bring the heavens down

You are my fate, you're my dreams and you belong to me
The yearning sounds you make they leave me restless
for the embrace

My blood is up by having you near, but your skin is dead cold
Our eyes they meet, but yours are absent

to me
The yearning sounds you make they leave me restless
for the embrace
