Girl, gonna take a little time
To assess my frame of mind
Cause I've got hopes to realign
Should I depart for cloud-less climbs
Cause I approach things emotionally, or at least I try So fare thee well baby if this should be our last goodbye
Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah!

In matters such as these your feelings cannot be denied
Cause every other avenue will lead to pain.
In matters such as these I let my heart decide
It's out of my hands again, Ooh

Girl I don't wanna be unkind
But there's a peace I've yet to find
So should I stand and watch my fate unwind
Or turn my back and leave it all behind
Cause I approach things emotionally, at least I try
So fare thee well baby if this should be out last good bye
Yeah Yeah Yeah Yeah!

In matters such as these you feelings cannot be denied
Cause every other avenue will lead to pain.
In matters such as these I let my heart decide
It's out of my hands again, Ooh
It's out of my hands again
Woo__ hoo__ hoo__

[GUITAR SOLO]

In matters such as these you feelings cannot be denied
Cause every other avenue will lead to pain.
In matters such as these I let my heart decide
It's out of my hands again, Ooh
