I am the thousand storms (fountain stone?) of the black heart
I am the desert of redemption (redemption)
I soar on dead wings of sin I am freedom with cracked virginity (cracked virginity) arrows of my erection, fade to hear me but the ones who came with fear and hate

Kiss me!
Deep, long and hard female: those who summon be the scheme at the jinx of jewish fairy tales (fairy tales)
is salt upon every soul held by your life And I wonder who seeks desolation to my eyes, holds a vision embrace last away
