["Crossing the Triangle of Flames" and "Summer of the Diobolical
Holocaust"
from "Under A Funeral Moon"]
The dragon rises before me I'll fornicate the beast come to me possess me as I burn into your painted realms come raging chaos rule power from your soul pure demoniac blessing

as I kill myself in woe
(as I kill myself in woe)
As souls coloured the face of the moon shall suffer the eclipse you must know that I can no longer see the difference of dream and reality for the walls have been sieged and banished by our Dark Satanic Blasphemy
