why wont you awnser ived called on you so many times but you still havent awnsered ive waited for you to knock on my door but im still waiting it feels as you dont care youv'e let me down everytime ive needed you or maybe its just me
maybe im keeping you out why i wouldnt know i feel as if you have something to say but i cant hear i dont know what to belive anymore but yet i know i dont want to give up on you i know i want you to come into my life and teach me wrong from right and i also know i want you to show me who i really m i want to fully give myself to you but theres something in the way but what it is i might never know
