Walking through neck deep water
I try to move towards you
Blinded by tears, sick with guilt
I pray "Please God, wont you pity me"
(CHORUS)
So alone and so afraid
Your words my only saving grace
Ill be here for you
Ill be here for you
No other words were ever true
It goes beyond human need
So now you start to bleed
Trickles slowly, then it starts to pour
Sick as I am, I want you more
(CHORUS)
So alone and so afraid
Your words my only saving grace
Ill be here for you
Ill be here for you
No other words were ever true
Down in the earth and stone
Under all that weight of rocks and roses
So tragic yet somehow beautiful
Under all that weight of rocks and roses
Can you forgive me for stealing
Ive knelt so long these legs are numb
Its comforting to have a piece of you
I pray "Please God, what have I become?"
(CHORUS)
So alone and so afraid
Your words my only saving grace
Ill be here for you
Ill be here for you
No other words were ever true
I'll be here for you
