We walk through crimson fire to Room 118
You open my heart with a sapphire skeleton key
I ache to taste your breath on my skin
[chorus]
Say you love me
Yeah, you love me
Gonna love me now
I'm in love, yeah
Gonna love you
Gonna love you
I know what you want
And I'll give you everything
In twilight morning while all the world sleeps
Cinnamon sins are all safe here with me
[chorus]
Let's sip our cognac and savor memory
I'm not finished dreaming I'm a heroine on the run
With a gun
The echoes of our sighs fill the room
We're not dressed yet but we're swaying to the moon
[chorus]
