i heard that you like him in fact that you are smitten i heard that he has tattoos i heard that his band's real cool and i cannot believe

this is happening to me
i thought we'd be forever
and i'd learn to be happy

i heard that you kissed him on a lonely wooden bench behind a cemetery where my martyrs laid to waist

bleeding for hollywood maybe if you suffer long enough someone will publicize this tragedy
