It takes a second
When you're down and out
There's nothing to fight about

Only a minute
Before the show's over and out
Break up the word

A piece of work
I'm trying her

Every hour
Turns my senses around
And upside down

Feel the rhythm
Of the heart
Whenever I'll be by your side

A piece of work
I'm trying her

As the hammer's raised
I'll run and hide
In a shallow grave

Hear the rhythm
Of the heart
I'll memorize each word you say

A piece of work
I'm trying her
For the better part
Think I'll steal your heart
I'm trying her

As the hammer's raised
I'll run and hide
In a shallow grave
