I cannot I believe you
If you say that you're not afraid
For something blows your mind
The face I've never seen
Never roam about anymore
I reckon every move you make
But somehow you won't be around no more, no more
I only know the little boy you were
You're growing older and I'm scared to lose you
Will you ever believe when I say
There's something strange about you
Its just that I won't take the blame anymore anymore, no more
I only know the little boy you were
You're growing older and I'm scared to lose you
I only know the little boy you were
You're growing older and I'm scared to lose you
I only know the little boy you were
